Message from Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah on International Women's Day

A woman is the backbone of society — as a mother, sister, and daughter, she is the foundation of every family, and through her ability, courage, and determination, she can change the destiny of nations – Speaker Sindh Assembly

Women in Pakistan have proven their capabilities in every field. From politics to the economy, from education to science, their contributions are remarkable – Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah

The Pakistan Peoples Party has always struggled for the welfare and equal rights of women. Shaheed Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto made history by becoming Pakistan's first female Prime Minister and introduced numerous revolutionary reforms for women – Speaker Sindh Assembly

The Benazir Income Support Programme, women police, First Women Bank, and other reforms paved the way for women's empowerment in Pakistan –

Speaker Sindh Assembly

Today is a day to renew our commitment to continue the struggle for women's rights, autonomy, and advancement. A strong and prosperous Pakistan can only be built when women are given equal opportunities – Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah
