Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah Welcomes Japanese Consul General Hattori Masaru at Sindh Assembly

Japanese Consul General Hattori Masaru, accompanied by Head of the Political and Cultural Section Mr. Kengo Hori, met with Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah at his office in Karachi.

The meeting focused on international parliamentary exchange programs, initiatives to enhance legislative capacity, and skill development of young parliamentarians.

Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah highlighted ongoing training initiatives for young lawmakers and plans to strengthen their legislative abilities.

Consul General Hattori Masaru shared ideas for bilateral cooperation and capacity-building initiatives for Sindh.

Future opportunities for cultural and parliamentary exchanges were also discussed.

Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah extended an invitation to the Consul General to visit the historic Sindh Assembly building and attend a session of the Provincial Assembly.

He appreciated Japan's longstanding support in education—especially girls' education—health, development, and disaster relief efforts during recent floods in Sindh.

On this occasion, Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah presented the Consul General with a Sindhi topi, ajrak, and a commemorative Sindh Assembly shield—symbols of Sindh's rich culture.
