

Press Release

19th January 2025

Iranian Consul General Hosts Luncheon in Honor of Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah

The Consul General of the Islamic Republic of Iran and Dean of the Karachi Consular Corps, Mr. Hassan Nourian, hosted a luncheon in honor of Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah at the Consulate General of Iran in Karachi.

A four-member delegation from the Cultural Commission of the Iranian Parliament, currently on an official visit to Karachi, was also present on the occasion.

Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah was accompanied by Deputy Speaker Anthony Naveed, Member of the National Assembly Mirza Ikhtiar Baig, and General Secretary of Pakistan Peoples Party Waqar Mehdi.

During the luncheon, discussions were held on strengthening bilateral cooperation and ties between Iran and Pakistan.

Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah emphasized the deep-rooted friendship between the two neighboring countries, stating:

"Iran and Pakistan share strong and friendly relations as neighboring nations. It is vital that these ties be preserved and further enhanced for mutual development, peace, security, and stability."

The gathering also addressed challenges faced by the Muslim Ummah and the shared responsibilities of both countries in pursuing sustainable solutions for unity and security.

Speaker Syed Awais Qadir Shah expressed his gratitude to Consul General Hassan Nourian for the warm hospitality and generous invitation.

The Consul General thanked the Speaker and his delegation for their time and presented a commemorative shield to Syed Awais Qadir Shah.

Speaker Awais Qadir Shah extended an invitation to Mr. Hassan Nourian and the Iranian delegation to visit the historic Sindh Assembly and attend a session of the Provincial Assembly to further strengthen bilateral ties and cultural harmony.

This meeting reflected the renewal of long-standing partnership between Iran and Pakistan and highlighted their shared commitment to regional cooperation and unity