Speaker Sindh Assembly Extends Greetings on the Occasion of Ramadan

Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah extends heartfelt greetings to the people of Pakistan and the Muslim Ummah on the blessed arrival of the holy month of Ramadan.

Ramadan is a month of mercy, forgiveness, and blessings that teaches us piety, patience, selflessness, and unity – Speaker Sindh Assembly

This sacred month offers us an opportunity to shape our lives around the values of righteousness, sincerity, and closeness to Allah – Syed Awais Qadir Shah

Through the trial of hunger and thirst, Ramadan reminds us of the pain of the underprivileged and the needy – Speaker Sindh Assembly

Ramadan teaches us to rise above our own selves to help others and to promote compassion and generosity in society – Syed Awais Qadir Shah,

Speaker Sindh Assembly

I appeal to the people of Pakistan to come forward in this holy month with charity, almsgiving, and support for the needy, so that no one sleeps hungry and everyone can share in the joys of Ramadan – Syed Awais Qadir Shah

May Allah grant us the ability to benefit from the blessings of Ramadan, adopt piety, and promote peace, love, and unity – Syed Awais Qadir Shah

It is my prayer that this sacred month brings peace, progress, and prosperity to Pakistan – Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah
