Message from Speaker Sindh Assembly Syed Awais Qadir Shah on the Death Anniversary of Makhdoom Muhammad Zaman Talib-ul-Mola

Today, we remember Makhdoom Muhammad Zaman Talib-ul-Mola—a remarkable blend of spirituality, political wisdom, and literary brilliance.

His unwavering belief in justice, democracy, and human dignity makes him a guiding light for all those who value these principles.

Makhdoom Talib-ul-Mola stood shoulder to shoulder with Shaheed Zulfikar Ali Bhutto and Shaheed Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto in the struggle for democracy.

As a spiritual leader, political thinker, and poet, his contributions reflect a deep love for humanity and an enduring commitment to a better future.

On his death anniversary, we pay tribute to his legacy and renew our pledge to uphold the values he lived by—values rooted in justice, equality, and respect for every individual.

His life continues to inspire us to work toward a society that mirrors his cherished ideals.
